

Guard Services

At ESSC, our officers are security guard experts who partner with you and provide exceptional customer service. Our security officers are offered extensive training during which they are educated in the most high-tech and state-of-the-art security systems. Our security guards understand how the criminals in our technologically advanced society can threaten the safety and security of not only your business but also your valued customers.

Because our security officers have both many years of experience and specialized security training, we can help you to deter incidents from happening and offer a fast, professional response if and when it would become necessary. Our security company works hard to prevent any security breeches, but if one does occur, you will be glad to have the security officers from ESSC on your team. We will work quickly and efficiently to diffuse the situation and restore normalcy to your business.
