

Event Services

ESSC provides executive security and management consulting services for business conferences, expos, fund raising galas, VIP gatherings, and other special events.

We excel at providing services for special events that require a professional, experienced, and more refined security presence. For special events that may attract media or be host to VIPs or a sophisticated audience, ESSC provides more than a presence. Our security staff is trained facilitators who participate in every aspect of an event's safety and security responsibilities. Our staff and experience is diverse. Our security teams are adept to environments requiring a discreet presence and a conservative approach.
