

Executive Staff

{xtypo_code}Clarence “Chuck” White{/xtypo_code}

Clarence E. (Chuck) White, the founder and chief executive officer of ESSC, received his Bachelor’s of Science in criminal justice and has since then served in various roles in his chosen profession with increased responsibilities as a private investigator; bodyguard; and security director. Upon establishing ESSC, Chuck sought and secured qualified and diverse talent from all areas of security to further ensure the success of ESSC. Among the talent employed by ESSC are active and retired sworn officers; military personnel, retired federal agents and seasoned security professionals.

{xtypo_code}Cedric Evans{/xtypo_code}

Cedric has worked with ESSC for 15+ years. He is a 20-year veteran of entertainment staffing and security business, owning and operating Evans Event Staff. He is licensed with the Georgia Board of Private Detective and Security Agencies. Cedric has worked with large events and venues staffing over 250 personnel for a single event. Cedric's expertise has been an asset to ESSC by providing ushers, ticket takers, parking attendants, uniformed guard service and crowd control security for most of ESSC's major events.

{xtypo_code}Deepti Pattni (Director of Sales, Marketing & Administration){/xtypo_code}

Deepti graduated with a Bachelor’s of Science in Business Administration: Marketing Management from Westwood College with a 3.98 GPA and has worked with ESSC since 2009. Since joining the ESSC team, Deepti has introduced and managed Social Media visibility, developed marketing literature for web, mail and email, sustained rapport with key accounts, taken control of scheduling multiple events simultaneously, created and submitted RFP’s, supervised event administration for 300+ employees and assisted in acquiring key business partners/contracts.